Working through a co-research project with children and young people as co-researchers (A. Little, 2024)

What do we know?

- How can we document this?
- How can it inform our research?

What do we want to know?

- How will we find out about this?
- How do we gather additional insights?

What have we found out?

- How will we share our findings?
- How can we inform others?
