Charity Support

"A profound and beautifully made animated film. Every experience of grief and bereavement is different and unique and this is a deeply personal response by Rebecca and Richard to the loss of their son Isaak" Rowena Pailing, Sands

"For Isaak is a brave and moving film that we hope inspires more people to have these difficult conversations and to reach out for support if they need it - huge congratulations to everyone involved in its production." Karen Burgess, Petals CEO

York and Scarborough Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

"We have included your short film into the mandatory monthly training for all the midwives at both York and Scarborough hospitals. Last week was the first showing and the feedback from the midwives has been excellent. They felt it was such a lovely film but very emotional and resonated with the staff conveying your grief and bereavement journey so well. There were a few tears from the audience but everyone was appreciative and glad that it was shown as part of their bereavement training. I am hoping to include the film when teaching student midwives at the University of York" – Bev Shelley, Bereavement Midwife, York NHS Trust
